Introduction & Objective:

The shares of the Company are listed on the stock exchanges and are traded by the public including various entities which may have association with the Company in various capacities such as employees, directors, consultants or otherwise. The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) vide its Regulations called SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 ("the Regulations") has put in place a legal framework for the prohibition of insider trading in securities. These Regulations also require every listed company to prepare a code of conduct and create a mechanism in order to implement standards envisaged under the Regulations and seek approvals for the execution of trades.

Therefore, this Trejhara Solutions Ltd – Insider Trading Policy and Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (hereinafter referred to as "the Code") seeks to:

- a) identify the categories of persons who may be covered under the purview of this Code;
- b) regulate the handling of the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI) relating to the Company and its securities and communication of such UPSI by such persons;
- c) regulate, monitor and report trading by the persons covered under the purview of this Code;
- d) provide guidance to the persons regarding compliance with the Regulations and
- e) create appropriate framework for the implementation of the Regulations in letter and spirit.

This Code has been approved at the Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company held on March 25, 2019 and the same is effective from April 01, 2019.

II. Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI) – Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosures

Communication or procuring of UPSI by Insider/Company

a) By Insiders:

- i) No Insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any UPSI to any person including other Insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations;
- ii) No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of UPSI except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

“Legitimate Purposes” for the purpose of this Code shall include sharing of UPSI in the ordinary course of business, or for the purposes as may have been approved by the Board or any member of the Board or under the Regulations, by an Insider with Partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent provisions of this Code.

The Insiders may seek an advice from the Compliance Officer in case of any doubts or ambiguity regarding the disclosures or manner of disclosures of the UPSI from time to time.

- iii) The UPSI may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:
 - a. entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company
 - b. not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations but where the Board is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute UPSI is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board may determine.

c. The Board or the persons authorized by the Board for the relevant purpose may, wherever deem appropriate, require parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations in order to ensure that the information disclosed is keep confidential and is not used except for the purpose contemplated for disclosure.

b) By Company:

- iv) The Company shall ensue prompt public disclosure of UPSI that would impact price discovery no sooner than credible and concrete information comes into being in order to make such information Generally Available Information.
- v) The Company shall endeavor to disseminate UPSI uniformly and universally to all stakeholders through Stock Exchanges and/ or by posting the same on official website of the Company.
